

Ananias was afraid of Saul at first, but he and other people in the early church helped Saul to change. They taught him how to follow Jesus. The church teaches us how to be disciples, too.

Draw a path of several stepping stones. On each stone write or draw a picture of something we do at church that helps us become disciples.

Acts 9:1-19